CUSTOMER SUCCESS STORY

No No Nuts in Myrtle Beach's allergy-friendly, vegan ice cream shop founded by Kori Dague. Inspired by their toddler's food allergies, they've created a safe haven from cross-contamination with a dedicated kitchen free of the Top 8 allergens. Their motto? "Keep it tasty, keep it simple, keep it safe."

America's First Ice Cream Shop

The earliest evidence of America's first Ice Cream shop was in the 1770's when British confectioner Philip Lenzi advertised ice cream of "any sort", along with a host of other treats in the New York Gazette.
